

“Salaam”!!

I’m Gabi(Gabriela) born and raised in Tehran, Iran These days, I’m cruising the streets as a mail delivery driver for the post office. It’s a gig with its fair share of hurdles—long hours under the scorching sun, occasional encounters with dogs—but it’s also a doorway to unique moments. Along my route, I’ve met folks from all walks of life. One in particular is an elderly lady, living alone with nobody to share her days with. Brightening her life has become a regular part of my routine. Every holiday season, I ensure she’s welcomed into my home for our gatherings. Some might ask why I invest my time this way, but I always reply, "You know, God sees our deeds, and I aim for goodness in mine!"

As I journey through each day delivering messages, my heart overflows with gratitude, thanking the Heavenly Father for guiding and blessing me, and for opportunities like the one with the elderly lady. Beyond my job, I find joy in CB radio. There’s something thrilling about bouncing signals across the sky, connecting with people worldwide. From chatting about weather updates to marveling at the wonders of God’s creation, it’s a passion that keeps me connected with the broader world around us.
